

Table of Contents
Section Title	Page
Manual Dedication & Acknowledgement	e
What You Will Learn	f
Course Completion Instructions for Continuing Education Credits	g
Behavioral Objectives	h
Boxing, Kickboxing or Martial Arts Fitness For Seniors – Why?	i
First Things First – The Term “Senior”	1
Introduction	1
Boxing, Kickboxing or Martial Arts – Competitive Sport vs. Fitness Program	3
Competitive Martial Arts & Self Defense	3
Boxing, Kickboxing and Martial Arts-Based Fitness	4
Prevalence/Growth	4
Boxing, Kickboxing and Martial Arts Fitness Training Benefits	5
Technique Instruction	6
Facility, Instructor & Participant Benefits	15
Physical Instruction Introduction	21
Stance/Technique/Movement Modification	25
Stances	37
The Starting Position	43
Movement	48
Upper Body Strikes – General Points	51
• Jab	53
• Cross	56
• Hook	59
• Uppercut	63
• Palm Heel	67
• Elbow Strikes	70
• Hammer Fist	77
• Knifehand Strike	80
• Blocking	83
Lower Body Strikes – General Points	89
• Knee Strikes	91
• Front Kick	96

Table of Contents (continued)
• Side Kick	102
• Roundhouse Kick	107
• Crescent Kick	115
• Back Kick (a.k.a. Donkey Kick)	123
Bob & Weave	125
Class Design	129
Class Formats	131
Balanced Workouts	133
Monitoring Intensity	134
Safety	135
Instructional Techniques	141
Equipment	145
Equipment Characteristics	149
Instructor Training	153
Program Development	155
Conclusion	159
Bibliography	161
Author Biography	162

Copyright © 2023 EmpowerUSA, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction of this work in any form, including xenography, photocopying and recording is forbidden without written permission of EmpowerUSA, Inc. EmpowerUSA, Inc. www.empower-usa.com